For over 114 years Scouting has helped build future leaders by combining activities and lifelong values with fun and adventure.

Enjoy a great breakfast and keynote speaker Danny Kanell.

Kanell is a college football analyst and is currently the host of Dusty and Danny in the Morning on Sirius XM and he is a member of the FSU hall of fame!

Kanell's athletic expertise spans both the collegiate and professional level in multiple sports. After playing quarterback at Florida State for four years, he was drafted into the NFL by the New York Giants in 1996 and played for the Atlanta Falcons and the Denver Broncos until 2004.

The Million Dollar Day for Scouting is about celebrating the positive effects the Scouting Movement is having in our communities. We anticipate that over 500 business & civic leaders will attend this prestigious event where we will share the positive impact of Scouting's values-laden programs. We will also extend an opportunity for each of our guests to pledge their financial support to our premier youth development organization.

I hope you will join us in supporting this worthwhile organization to ensure Scouting's positive programs for the next 100 years.

The event is free to attend, reservations are required.
